Southern Adventist University is pleased to welcome Joseph Khabbaz as the new vice president for spiritual life. Along with serving as campus chaplain, Khabbaz will help prioritize Southern’s spiritual goals through this newly restructured position. “For some time, I hoped for an administrative position focused on spiritual life that would provide direct input into top decision-making processes,” said president David Smith.

Holy Ghost Power

“We may look like a VW on the outside, but according to the promise of God, we’ve got Holy Ghost Porsche power on the inside! We may not look like the mega-church Chevelle across town with all the equipment and everything they have, but we’ve got Holy Ghost power on the inside, ... And with the Holy Ghost power, the latter days will be greater than the former days.”

— G. Alexander Bryant, NAD executive secretary, on Nov. 1, 2019, during the secretary's report at NAD Year-end Meeting, in conclusion to a story he told about a race between a fancy new 1966 Chevelle and a 1960 Volkswagen Bug with a 911 Porsche engine
