Serving the homeless, sick, and food insecure in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic — ministry leaders employ faith and adaptability to continue serving their communities during a time of unprecedented restrictions on mobility and gatherings. Read about three special outreach programs as they attempt to serve during this health crisis. MORE

"According to the World Health Organization, the U.S. has 140,640 confirmed cases of COVID-19 disease as of March 31, 2020. Canada has 6,317, Bermuda has 22, and Guam has 58. ... It is concerning to know that all of us are at risk. This hit home when I was under voluntary quarantine after returning from a conference." READ MORE from NAD Health Ministries director Angeline David.
Adventist Community Services entities across the NAD continue to provide relief and meet the needs of their community during the COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic. HERE are some updates shared with NAD ACS on the challenges that this crisis has caused, and some ways they have adapted in addressing and meeting the needs of their community.

Stephanie Seay and “Christine” met more than 20 years ago on the job at an Atlanta nursing home. They became fast friends. Seay, the facility’s bookkeeper, was a practicing Christian, and Christine, the social activities assistant, was not. Marriage, children, and age rolled in and Christine began wondering about Christ, shared Seay. That’s when Seay sent her Message magazine.

Even before his state issued a stay-at-home order to curb the spread of COVID-19, Desta Gelgelu, an economics professor, church planter,

The NAD All-Night Prayer Call is Apr. 2-3, from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. Eastern Time. NAD prayer leaders will serve as "prayer hosts" throughout the night. Let's give thanks; let's share needs; let's pray together! Call
Faith For Today launches a new virtual Bible study series, "The Bible Lab," as a resource for those sheltering in place. The ICE-O-LATION Sessions are interactive Bible studies with Speaker/Director Roy Ice, where participants have the ability to study together from their own homes. The Bible Lab meets on Sabbath mornings at 10:30 a.m. PDT. For more information visit: www.TheBibleLab.com.

April 11 is Christian Record Services offering Sabbath! Christian Record Services for the Blind gave Marye McKenney hope and connection with a church community. Like you, many people who are blind are missing relationships, especially now in this time of nationwide isolation, lockdowns, and social distancing. Watch Marye's story, “Give Hope!” and consider donating to Christian Record on Sabbath, April 11. Together we can help people who are blind connect with Christ and enjoy fellowship with a community that celebrates their potential for ministry. Materials for churches are available HERE or GIVE ONLINE.

Is your church live-streaming? We want to hear from you! The NAD is looking to compile a list of churches that are currently live-streaming their services. Click here to send a detailed email, including church name, link to the stream, language the service is presented in, city and state, timezone, and pastor/AV contact information.
As COVID-19 cases continue to grow, many churches are reducing and/or canceling religious gatherings and services — or temporarily going to online services. AdventistGiving allows you to return your tithe and give your offerings online, in a secure way, while you do your online banking, or even if you are unable to attend church due to an illness or COVID-19 closing. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Adventist Risk Management, Inc. (ARM) has resources for churches and schools available HERE. Resources include planning tips for the possibility of disruption to everyday life, resources from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and answers to frequently asked questions regarding insurance coverages for travel, property, and liability insurance. ARM has also created a video that promotes common-sense ways we all can use to prevent the spread of germs. This video may be shared by any Adventist organization or church member on social media, websites, and e-newsletters. WATCH

Trust the Engineer

"The author Corrie Ten Boom wrote: 'When a train goes through a tunnel and it gets dark, you don't throw away the ticket and jump off. You sit still and trust the engineer.'

"Right now, we are going through a crisis. It is dark. The news changes every day. The projections for the next two weeks are staggering. But we trust the Conductor [sic], we trust Who is in charge. We trust Who is driving the train — and that is Jesus.

"I have tried to make it a daily commitment to say 'Lord, I know my deficiencies and I know what's going on, but I trust You. I know that You will bring all things together for me in my life. I know ultimately You will work all things together for good.'"
