NEWSPOINTS

December 22, 2021

On Dec. 12, the sun beamed down on a crisp afternoon as a stream of personal vehicles pulled into the North American Division headquarters' parking lot. Once parked, people of all ages were welcomed and directed inside to the second COVID-19 vaccine clinic held this fall at the headquarters. MORE

Dec. 10 was a momentous day for the Seventh-day Adventist Church, Adventist HealthCare and distinguished Historically Black Colleges and Universities, as the life and legacy of Lucille "Lucy" Byard was recognized and honored. Byard was a Black Seventh-day Adventist who was turned away by the Washington Sanitarium in 1943 because of the color of her skin. MORE

For the second year in a row, the Orangevale Seventh-day Adventist Church hosted a drive-thru Christmas event for its community. On Dec. 11, the California church welcomed more than 350 people who came to view a manger scene with live animals, hear voice and bell choirs, enjoy refreshments, and receive gifts. They also had the opportunity to participate in a canned food drive. MORE

The School of Nursing at Southern Adventist University will offer a 16-week course, beginning Jan. 11, 2022, that equips participants to pursue health and wellness coaching certification. No prior healthcare experience is required. “The program is ideal for anyone working in healthcare who wishes to use a coaching approach when working with patients,” said Lilly Tryon, DNP, professor in the school of nursing. Food and Mood: How what we eat affects how we feel. Depression rates among adults in the U.S. have tripled from a pre-pandemic rate of 8.5 percent to 32.8 percent. What are the contributing factors? Has the pandemic affected eating habits? Is there an association between the foods we consume and our emotions? Is there a biblical connection between lifestyle choices and mental health? Does diet contribute to our happiness?

FOR UNTO US A CHILD IS BORN,
UNTO US A SON IS GIVEN;
AND THE GOVERNMENT WILL BE UPON HIS SHOULDER.
AND HIS NAME WILL BE CALLED
WONDERFUL, COUNSELOR,
MIGHTY GOD,
EVERLASTING FATHER,
PRINCE OF PEACE.
— ISAIAH 9:6, NKJV
